Report Run 1484

Captain Pugwash's Magnificent Marathon

The usual suspects assembled in a new venue in Stirling. A pack of about 30 graced the suburb with its charming, if malodorous, presence. A particular suspect was Greasenipple who had drawn the attention of the local constabulary to his courtesy car and had some difficulty satisfying them the so-called vehicle was his, not Fandangle's. Explanations for the police intervention varied from the sublime (he had arrived early and was spotted spanking the monkey) to the ridiculous (a neighbour wondered why he was parked across her driveway for half an hour with stuffed chimpanzee).

The glorious Hashmaster, the wondrous and awe-inspiring Hidden Flagon, put the pack in circular formation, ably assisted by the groveling and obsequious Crackers as RA (only because the weather looked like rain). Pugwash announced a magnificent run, gave magnificently mendacious directions (like that the hills were all down and that there would be trail), some idiot was told to do the run report and the pack set off.

Personally I don't remember much of the 'run' as trail was lost within a block or two and a huddle of us gathered outside the Labor Club to see if anyone knew where the drink stop was. Fortunately Scarlet had received a magnificent leak from Sticky Date so we headed off to the Irish Club car park, collecting D2Hd, Big Boy, Centrefold, Crackers and assorted fellow travelers and malcontents on the way. Even so the crippled Mixo, Meat, Sticky, Gobbles, Paddle Pop, PP and Soft Centre beat us there.

I am reliably informed that the running pack picked up a semblance of trail and eventually made it to the drink stop after running to Woden and back in about 90 minutes. Infallible was heard to mutter that the magnificent Mal's run was further than his own fabled Christmas Run (aka "the Long March").

Andrew was named Fartick Thistle, Big Boy got the Big Prick to remind him what one felt like after his performance at the Masterbateman AGPU dance where he mistook a tattooed and bearded bikie on the dancefloor for the demure and retiring Soft Centre and I think Pugwash got Spanky the Monkey. There were assorted charges, all based on eyewitness testimony and overwhelming evidence. The run was awarded 1.5 points raised to 1.51 following the mash (chicken stew with pasta and veges) and Pugwash and Sticky sailed off for three months away from winter in Girt by Sea. Yo!
