Run Reporter - Easy

The Hare Counterher Feet/Gobbles/Who knows

The pack sort of gathered at Point Hunt pond – the hare was confused. The GM sorted of arrived on time a circle was called the hare announced that Gobbles had set the run and the pack was sent on their way.

Having missed a few runs decided to lead the pack out by short cutting across the field only to hear a scream I turned to see Hello Kitty being scalped by a tree – great start I knew then to survive this run I would need to get the mantra going “Gobbles set the run please be a good run, Gobbles set the run please be a good run” to then have the GM catchup with me and tell me “Easy go to the back of the pack and do the run report PLEASE” .

Great so here I am at the back of the pack trying to find trail as the back markers were doing a lousy job. The GM must have been feeling guilty as he did try and leave the bladder trail or he just likes hiding in bushes by the side of the road. Nice and flat around the street of Banks we ran well walked well jogged – and a bit of eye candy was spotted on the way. The mantra was finally working.

Somehow ended up crossing Tharwa Drive to look ahead and see blue flashing lights – is a hash man down has there been a accident – no its a dog with flashing blue balls something I can not explain ask Weatherman. The pack were having trouble finding trail I think it was because a hash stop was put in the carpark of a club and as a hasher one should know don't stop where you can smell beer as this is where they automatically go.

On On was finally called across into Oxley then on up, Free Willy and Wet Spot had now joined the pack. I had hear rumours about them poking each other on trail – well I did get a bit worried as they followed the pack around a corner to all of a sudden hear lots and lots of birds start squawking loudly at them “gay birds”?

Then on up, on up, on up by now mantra had changed “f*cking Gobbles f*ucking Gobbles” to finally get to the top and hear the pack whinge about how long it took the back of pack to make it up the hill. I think I was meant to look at the vista but the pack then set of and like sheep went straight pass the trail which left Dick Head and JR as front runners as the pack raced passed them muttering were heard at least they are not lost this week. Down the hill around the corner and low and behold the drink stop.

Nibbles and punch was provided and on home to the circle.

The Circle

Run report – very confusing as Counterher Feet was the hare but keep saying Gobbles was - after giving the a score of 3 Easy charged them both for confusing the circle and not knowing who was the hare.

Charges: in no special order -

Free Willy charged GreeseNipple for living in the karate kid time zone.

Gerbil charged Gobbles for setting a predicable run – dumb charge at least is was not a marathon

Gobbles charged Gerbil for thinking that he and Counterher Feet had a threesome with Big Boy – we won't go there

Poo Shooter charged Hidden Flagon for secret hash training but the harriettes really know how he pulled that muscle.

Poo Shooter charged PP and PP for having a lay – bad back, floors you work it out

GM charged Gobbles for not sharing his beer at the start of the run – but who would want to drink a crownie – a Carlton support maybe.

I am sure there were other charges – but the jokes sort took over.

Awards

Free Willy – passed the small monkey onto Dumb Dickhead Dave and then felt she needed to add another charge to DDH for stealing the monkey – and the circle was in an uproar DDH would never do this – Distemper was then charged for lying to Free Willy so who did steal the monkey.

Weatherman – passed the large spanky monkey onto Hidden Flagon - could have been pulling that muscle himself or could have been because he is over 50 or for the joke he told.

Other things

Why does Friskies want to measure up the men - step in line boys? Meat you need to take Friskies to Testicle's /Greenfinger School of measuring up!

When did we start advertising runs with charades?

THE BLACK BOX

Free Willy – does not like snow skiing – why does she keep going????????????????
